

Manufacturing Assembly Labourer - with AutoCad experience

Aluminum Curtainwall Systems Inc - Kamloops, BC

Aluminum Curtainwall Systems Inc is a manufacturer of custom unitized and stick curtain wall systems. We currently have a unique position available for someone with both construction and drafting experience.

The successful candidate will work hands on in our prep department, as well as, be the liaison between the production and engineering team. This person is able read and interpret shop drawings in AutoCad and AutoDesk Inventor Software. This is a labourer position, so the candidate should have previous construction or assembly manufacturing experience.

Skills Required

- Ability to read blueprints and shop drawings
- Working knowledge of AutoCad and AutoDesk Inventor software
- Experience using both hand and power tools

Qualifications

- Training in AutoCad and Inventor Software
- Construction experience an asset
- Exceptional communicator
- Detail orientated
- Strong mechanical and math aptitude

Compensation

- Competitive wage based on experience
- Extended health and Dental after 300 hours worked
- MSP top ups
- RRSP Matching options after three years
- Life Insurance and Long Term Disability benefits
- Vision Benefits

Other Perks

Company hosted BBQs
Special occasion celebrations
Career growth opportunities

Job Type: Full-time

Required Experience:

- Manufacturing or Construction: 1 year
- AutoCAD: 1 year
- AutoDesk Inventor: 1 year

Job Location:

- Kamloops, BC

Required license or certification:

- Driver's Licence and Reliable Vehicle

Required language:

- English